

THE WICKED Wilde
Shakespeare FESTIVAL

May 29 - June 27

Beyond Gender...

Beyond Time...

Beyond Reason!

Three Fast, Fantastical Tales
That Will Set Your Brain On Fire!

Directed and Produced by Lisa Wolpe

(800) 838-3006

www.brownpapertickets.com

TRAGEDY * ROMANCE * COMEDY

Macbeth3:

Satan prowls after the soul of the warrior Macbeth as he reaches for a bloody Crown in this gender-bent, three-man performance adapted from Shakespeare's tragedy "Macbeth". (TRT: 1 hour.)

A Tyrant's Tale:

Jealous King Leontes condemns his innocent Queen and is rescued by a long-lost princess in this romantic fairy tale, adapted from Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale". (TRT: 1 hour.)

The Importance of Being Earnest:

No one is quite what they seem in Oscar Wilde's deliciously deceitful comedy of secret identities and wicked wit, starring John Achorn as Lady Bracknell. (TRT: 1 hour, 15 minutes.)

Lovers and Madmen:

Celebrate our interns as high school and college student actresses play everything from beggars to kings in a festive evening of favorite scenes from Shakespeare. (TRT: 1 hour.)

The Wicked Wilde Shakespeare Festival is a project of the Los Angeles Women's Shakespeare Company - producing innovative gender-bent theater since 1993 (2008 LA Drama Critics Award for Sustained Excellence).

CAST: John Achorn*, Cynthia Beckert*, Linda Bisesti*, Mark Bramhall*, Laura Covelli, David Glasser, Andrew Heffernan*, Scott McRae, Heidi Rose Robbins, Katrinka Wolfson*, Lisa Wolpe* and Kevin Vavasseur.

Directed, Adapted and Produced by Lisa Wolpe.

Scenic Design: Mia Torres, Lighting: Maura McGuinness, Fights: Edgar Landa, Sound: Rachel Myles. Associate Director, The Importance of Being Earnest: Cate Caplin.

This program was made possible in part by a grant from the City of Santa Monica and the Santa Monica Arts Commission.

*Actors appear courtesy of Actors Equity Association.

May 28 through June 27 at the The Miles Memorial Playhouse, 1130 Lincoln Boulevard, Santa Monica, CA 90403. Free parking is located at 808 Wilshire Blvd. (entrance to parking lot is located on Lincoln Blvd).

Tickets $15

Brown Paper Tickets

at (800) 838-3006 or

www.brownpapertickets.com

Info at www.lawsc.net

